

BRENT PRITCHARD

AGRONOMIST

PROFILE

Brent Pritchard, has been with Farmanco since 2009 and is based in Albany. Brent has worked in agronomy since 1990, spending 14 years with Elders (Katanning and Albany) and four years as an Adviser working with the Department of Agriculture and Food, WA (DAFWA) in Manjimup and Lake Grace.

Brent's focus is on canola and cereal systems, especially integrated pest and weed management.

A Farmanco Principal, Brent also manages the Farmanco Research program.

CONTACT

A: 30 Graham St (MBA Building), Albany WA

M: 0488 428 333

E: brent@farmanco.com.au

W: www.farmanco.com.au

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Crop and pasture agronomy
- Farm paddock rotation planning
- Fertiliser and ameliorant strategies
- Fertiliser requirement planning
- In-field pesticide recommendations
- Interpretation of soil tests
- Manage Farmanco research trials
- Operating profit focused agronomy advice
- Rotational planning and analysis
- Soil fertility management

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (Agriculture)(Hons) University of Western Australia

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Stirlings to Coast Farmers – Original steering committee member, and ongoing involvement

North Stirlings Pallinup Natural Resources – group trial work

